

Pardons in Virginia

Pardons are very rare in Virginia. Attorney Sheldon is the only attorney in Virginia to have collected and analyzed through research and freedom of information act requests the pardon data for the last 12 years in Virginia. In the last 12 years (2008-2019) there have been 420 simple pardons granted and only 85 pardons shortening the length of the sentence served, or about 7 a year. In the last several years Attorney Sheldon has secured simple, conditional and commutation pardons for clients.

A pardon is an extraordinary remedy because it can be issued at anytime and for any reason. The President grants pardons for federal crimes, a Governor grants pardons for state crimes. There are three types of pardons in Virginia, Simple, Conditional and Absolute.

A simple pardon is a statement of grace, or forgiveness, by the Governor. It has no legal effect and one's record is unaffected except that it is likely to have the word "pardon" on it. A simple pardon is often pursued to make finding employment easier. A conditional pardon, sometimes called a partial or medical pardon, is a pardon issued to shorten the length of a sentence. The conviction remains in place. An absolute pardon eliminates both the sentence and the conviction and wipes the record clean. A commutation eliminates a death sentence in a capital case.

Through freedom of information act requests we have also received and reviewed the confidential communication between governors and their chiefs of staff and chief legal counsels giving us a unique insight into the reasons pardons are granted and denied. Below you will find a summary of all 505 pardons granted for the last 12 years including why the pardon was granted.¹
